Administrative Management Certificate Program

University of California, Irvine | P.O. Box 6050, Irvine, CA 92616-6050
www.extension.uci.edu

OVERVIEW

The changing role of the assistant or administrative professional demands a new set of skills and a broader scope of responsibilities. This program focuses on the current skills needed to succeed with confidence and ultimately prepares individuals to help their organization reach targeted goals. Mastery of the program objectives will enable participants to: communicate more effectively with all levels in an organization, lead and motivate team members in new and creative ways, resolve conflict through the attainment of negotiation skills, conduct productive meetings that achieve desired outcomes, and competently perform basic budgeting and financial analysis.

WHO SHOULD ENROLL

Successful completion of course work in this program will develop the management, leadership and communication skills of administrative assistants, office managers, entry level supervisors and technical staff. Experienced supervisors seeking fresh approaches and creative solutions to management tasks will also benefit.

CERTIFICATE REQUIREMENTS

To earn the certificate, participants must complete four required courses and minimum three units of electives each with a grade of "C" or better for a minimum of 150 hours of instruction. These requirements must be fulfilled within five years from the date of enrollment in the program. Although interested persons who are not certificate candidates may enroll in any or all of the courses, certificate candidates should apply for the Certificate Program before completing the third class in which he/she enrolls. Please see Application for Candidacy.

After you have completed all requirements, you may request to receive your official certificate by completing the Request for Certificate Form and returning it to our offices as noted on the form.

For more information about the program, please contact Kathy Amoroso at kamoroso@uci.edu or visit our website listed below.

REQUIRED COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Essentials of Management

Mgmt X490.1 (4 units)

Are you a manager interested in increasing your effectiveness? A human resources professional? An individual looking to move into management? Now you can acquire an in-depth understanding of the basic concepts and theory of management, while exploring the manager's operational role in all types of organizations. Gain insight into the manager's responsibility in planning, organizing, leading, staffing and controlling within the workplace. Learn how to manage for success!

Communication in the Business Environment

Mgmt X497.2 (2 units)

Virtually everything that we do in business involves working with people. In today's, highly competitive business world, it is more important than ever to recognize and study the significant role communication plays in our lives. As managers and supervisors, how well we communicate in a large part determines how successful we will be on the job and our level of personal job satisfaction. This course is for individuals at all levels in all types of businesses who desire to polish and/or develop additional communication skills in formal and informal settings. Through interactive discussions, role plays and activities, the following areas are covered: conflict resolution, giving and receiving criticism, defensive communication, assertiveness, focused listening, non-verbal communication, team building and delegation, empowerment, small group dynamics, leadership, management and sales strategies, customer service, problem solving and negotiation, intercultural communication, interviewing, and power and authority.

Business Writing Workshop

English X446.4 (4 units)

Effective writing is a powerful tool in the business environment. Learn how to articulate your thoughts clearly, concisely and with a style that gets your writing read. Improve your skill at using this powerful instrument by learning to select and use appropriate formats, use the correct medium and adjust your writing style accordingly, as well as identify your objective and communicate it clearly. You'll also learn to spot, avoid and correct the most common writing pitfalls and gain valuable experience analyzing, writing and revising a complete spectrum of business documents. From a simple inter-office memo to a twenty-page business proposal, learn how to put good writing to work for you.

Building and Administering Budgets

Mgmt X434.3 (2 units)

Gain the competitive edge by developing your skills in financial analysis, and budgeting. Using financial statements of sample companies, you will acquire practical knowledge of the mathematics of asset valuation, pricing, cash flow, financial statement analysis, forecasting and ROI analysis. Learn to determine realistic goals and objectives for the budget and identify key components of the budget. Develop the ability to estimate expenses, project depreciation, estimate fixed and variable costs, and calculate break-even point.

ELECTIVE COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Ethics in the Workplace: Dilemmas and Decisions

Mgmt X497.3 (1 unit)

This course will focus on the critical ethical implications of managerial decision making. The emphasis will be on the link between personal values, community values, and ethical standards in any decision-making situation. Organizational leaders will understand the ethical quandaries in which they can find themselves and learn how to handle them. Students will also learn how to identify and avoid ethical decision-making traps. The students will also explore the critical links between beliefs, values, and ethics and learn how make decisions when these decision-making elements don't align. Students will also have the opportunity to assess their own ethical perspective and learn how to collaborate and work with others who begin with a different perspective.

Presentation Skills Workshop

Human X490.2 (1.5 units)

Does your public image do you justice? Dynamic presentation skills are a "must" for those in marketing, advertising and design management, public relations, fund-raising, sales and other careers that require the ability to communicate persuasively and with confidence. This course gives step-by-step techniques to polish skills, using video camera taping and private, individual replay. Students will learn to express themselves clearly and persuasively in a variety of situations, from one-on-one meetings to client presentations to large speaking engagements. Participants will learn how to organize information to appeal to your audience, gain confidence, handle questions, use audio-visuals for optimum impact, gain "stage presence" and win audience rapport.

Problem Solving and Decision Making
Mgmt X493.9 (2.5 units)

This course provides a conceptual framework for approaching problem solving and decision-making situations with clarity and confidence. Participants build competence in making effective decisions based on the accurate assessment of the problem and preparing creative alternative solutions. Students learn how to use analysis, synthesis, and positive inquiry to approach individual and organizational problems, develop and evaluate objectives, and assess likely consequences. Using case studies and on-the-job situations encountered by the class, students explore successful models and proven methods that are readily transferable to their own situations.

Negotiation Skills
Socecol X456 (2 units)

Traditionally, the primary negotiation strategy utilized has been a competitive approach commonly referred to as "distributive bargaining." Recently, a more cooperative approach has emerged fostering the term "win-win" negotiation. This approach centers on interests rather than issues and attempts to create value for each side. In an interest based negotiation, attention moves toward solution. Explore the theory and practice of negotiating and the methodology of obtaining cooperative conflict resolution. Business managers and professionals will benefit by examining positional bargaining, cooperative approaches to impasses and collaborative styles of negotiation techniques.

Dealing Tactfully with Difficult People
Mgmt X497.17 (1 unit)

It has been stated that everyone is someone's difficult person. Almost daily, we come in contact with people we would characterize as difficult. They are the people we work with, sell to, depend on, and live with. There are intimidators, manipulators, analyzers, know-it-alls, overly friendly, accommodators, chronic complainers and whiners. Their actions consume time, energy and emotion at the expense of productivity and morale. This course provides fresh insights and immediately usable skills needed to quickly, confidently and assertively identify and deal with various types of people, difficult or not, in a variety of contexts while maintaining your own self confidence.

Interviewing Within the Professional Context
Mgmt X497.6 (1 unit)

This course will examine the various forms of interviews focusing primarily on the employment or recruitment interview and the performance review. Elements of the interview process will be studied and will include: all forms of correspondence (cover letters, resumes, thank you letters), all phases of the interview process (what occurs prior, during and post interview), and verbal and nonverbal communication strategies for all forms of communication interactions within the interview context.

ONLINE FORMAT FAQ's

What are the online course fees?

$590 each (prices are subject to change)

What is an online course?

An online course utilizes the Internet as a means of creating a learning environment outside of the traditional classroom. The lectures and discussions will take place on a Distance Learning Center Web site. You will be able to access your course lectures (text based) and communicate with your classmates and instructors through the use of a discussion forum (message board). The online courses follow a classroom structure of moving a lesson a week. You can access your course Web site anytime of the day and place where you have access to the Internet.

Who can take online courses?

Anyone can take an online course as long as they have access to a computer with Internet capabilities and have an active email account. An online student also has to be motivated to participate in discussion forums and regularly check the Web site and keep up with the course work.

What happens if I fall behind or complete the course early?

It is okay to be a week ahead or behind. You must remember that participation is a very important aspect of your final evaluated grade for the course. Active participation requires you to post and respond to your instructor and fellow classmates' comments on the discussion forum. If you are too far behind, posting to an old topic will be revisiting something that the majority of your classmates might have discussed.

Are there specific dates that I need to log on to the Web site?

There is a set beginning and end date for your online course. It is suggested that you logon at least 3 times a week to check the discussion forums, to read over assignments and lectures. This is the "asynchronous" aspect of the course.

There might be occasion when the instructor will set a chat time ("synchronous") where he/she assigns a specific date and time for all the students to try to meet in the chat room to ask questions.

All assignments, quizzes, exams, and projects must be completed within the time frame of the course. The instructor will set individual due dates for your assignments, projects and tests.

How many hours a week do I have to devote to my online course?

Just like a classroom course, to get the most out of any type of learning you must commit a certain amount of time to complete the course. You will most likely spend approximately 10 hours a week going over class lectures, doing assignments and spending time on the discussion forum.

Will I be able to see my online instructor or communicate with him/her via telephone?

Unless there is an extreme instance, all communications with your instructor will be done either through email, the discussion forums or the chat sessions. Please do not expect your instructor to telephone you.

How do I communicate with my instructor?

You communicate with your instructor by either email, discussion forums, or chat sessions. Students are highly encouraged to use these modes of communications, as faxed or mailed assignments are not accepted.

What happens if I have trouble accessing the URL with my login and password?

Contact the Distance Learning Center (DLC) office at unex-online@uci.edu or 949-824-7613 and we will assess and work to fix any problems in the most expeditious manner. In order to better serve you, please note the problem as it occurred.

Will having a firewall at home or at work prevent me from working on my online course?

Although, this very seldom occurs, your firewall may prevent you from posting to the discussion forum while allowing you to read the lectures and other resources.

Do I need to have cookies enabled?

Yes, it is necessary to have your cookies enabled. To best protect your computer it is suggested that you vary your cookie options to ensure the most secure level.

Can I access my course from anywhere?

You can access the course anywhere that you have Internet access. Some companies have firewalls that prevent you from participating in the chat sessions. Please check with your company before you attempt to access the course.

I have enrolled and I entered my key, but it still won't let me in.

Many of you will have enrolled prior to the course start date. Courses will not appear until a few days before the course start date. Please note that the first week is considered an orientation week where you can become familiar with the course tools. Always make sure to enter a course for the current quarter that you are signed up for. Many times, previous quarters will be available for past students. The registration number will be listed (5 digit number beginning with 2 zeros) and a quarter indicator (SP – Spring, SU – Summer, WI – Winter, and FA – Fall).

When is the last day to drop the course?

The last day to drop a course follows the standard provided in the UCI Extension catalog. There will be an administrative fee assessed for any withdrawals within the allowable period.

What happens if I can't finish a course?

We understand that certain situations can occur. Please refer to the UCI Extension catalog for procedures, etc.

How do I know which online courses can take the place of classroom courses?

Please visit our website at <http://unex.uci.edu> for more information about our certificate programs and course offerings.

How do online courses work?

Once you begin your course, you will find that with the use of the course tools, you will be able to navigate from the lecture to the discussion forums or to the weekly outline. You will be able to maneuver through the Web site to post/read assignments and to download/upload files from your instructor. Your instructor will primarily be contacting you by email or through the discussion forum. Once you begin your course, you will find that with your instructor's help, you will find the benefits of taking a course online.

Do I need to purchase books or any additional items?

Some courses do require that you purchase books or software. Please contact the UCI Bookstore for more information about the books for your courses at (949) 824-7810. You can also contact the Distance Learning Center at unex-online@uci.edu.

What happens after I sign up for a course, how do I get started?

If you enroll through the Web site at <http://unex.uci.edu> you will receive a confirmation email from our Student Services office with information regarding the steps needed to create your login and password, URL to access your course, and the enrollment key to enter your course.

If you have faxed or telephoned your enrollment, you will receive by U.S. mail a confirmation of your course enrollment. On that confirmation you will find the information regarding access to your online course.

What is an enrollment key?

An enrollment key is required only for the first time that you enter your online course. Your enrollment key will be given at the same time as the information regarding your course access.

Will the platform for online courses be changing continually every quarter?

There will be changes periodically. Changes occur mainly as a result of student and instructor feedback to our Web site. This is done to maximize the tools.

Is my online course an instructor led course?

Like a traditional course, your online course has an instructor that will conduct the course by giving assignments, answering questions, leading discussions and assigning grades.

Can I get a degree online?

At this time, you can only receive a Master's Degree in Criminology, Law and Society.

Students intending to transfer UC Irvine Extension course credit for a degree at another college or university should verify acceptance of the course with that institution.

What kind of grade options do I have?

The grading options are exactly the same as that of classroom courses.

Who do I contact if I am having problems with the instructor?

Please contact the DLC office at (949) 824-7613 or unex-online@uci.edu. Your instructor should be very explicit on the course syllabus or welcome message as to their availability. If the instructor is going out of town or will be away from the computer for an extended period of time, he/she must notify the class.

Why do I get emails of the discussion forum postings?

If you are receiving emails from the discussion forums, you are subscribed to that particular forum. You can change this option by going to the forums sections on the left side of the course site under Activities. By selecting forum, you will be able to see all the forums created and to turn on/off the subscription function. There may be a forum that you will not be able to change. More than likely, that will be a place where the instructor will post announcements.

I like getting the forum subscribed emails, but the responses I made are not on the course Web site.

If you prefer to receive the subscribed emails from the forum, please do not reply to the email directly, but post your reply to the specific forum where the posting originated. This will ensure that others, including your instructor, will see your reply or comment.

I am confused and frustrated, I can't seem to find my way around the Web site. What can I do?

Call us at (949) 824-7613. We will be happy to walk you through the tools and show you everything you need to know.
