

A touch of class

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, IRVINE

UC Irvine Extension, in collaboration with the American Society of Appraisers, offers a unique Certificate Program in Appraisal Studies (150 hours), and a Specialized Studies Program in Connoisseurship (90 hours), both in Fine & Decorative Arts.

Whether you're a seasoned veteran of the appraising world or a newcomer, our partnership with the American Society of Appraisers (ASA) offers the only West Coast university-based program in appraisal studies.

The combination of the expertise of the ASA and the strong academic reputation of the UC provides you with the highest quality and affordably priced appraisal training, courses and institutes. The appraisal certificate also prepares you for eventual membership in the ASA.

2010 Schedule

Principles of Valuation (POV)

Introduction to Personal Property Valuation	Mar 4-7, 2010
Personal Property Valuation: Methodology, Research & Analysis	May 13-16, 2010
Personal Property Valuation: Report Writing	Sept 16-19, 2010
Personal Property Valuation: The Legal Environment	Nov 4-7, 2010

Professional Development

Inspecting & Describing Fine Art	Mar 8-9, 2010
Turning Gold & Silver into "Green"	May 17-18, 2010
Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP) for Personal Property Valuation	Jun 4-5, 2010
History & Craft of Handmade Oriental/Persian Rugs	Aug 6-7, 2010
Estate Tax & Charitable Contributions: What's New?	Sept 20-21, 2010

UCIRVINE | EXTENSION

The International Society of Professional Valuers

10% discount for ASA members on all continuing education classes. Use discount code ASA10.

Approved for ASA Continuing Professional Education Credits!

For more information or to be placed on our mailing list, please call (949) 824-6335 or email unexarts@uci.edu. To enroll, visit extension.uci.edu/courses or call (949) 824-5414.