17 Live Sessions. Convenient. Reliable. Affordable.

With the NAGC Virtual Convention you can earn CEUs from the comfort of your home, school or office. The Virtual Convention is designed to meet the needs of those who are unable to travel to the NAGC Annual Convention in St. Louis.

The University of California Irvine, Extension will offer NAGC  UCIRVINE | EXTENSION Virtual Conference attendees 1(one) university continuing education unit of professional development credit for $120. This official transcript may be used to document professional development hours and can be submitted to your district as requirements for salary advancement. Additionally, this unit can be applied toward UC Irvine Extension's fully online Specialized Studies in Gifted & Talented Education program.

Sponsored by Prufrock Press

To be eligible for credit, participants must:

- Attend a minimum of 4.5 hours of virtual conference sessions;
- Complete an UCI Extension enrollment form;
- Write a 2-page reflection paper summarizing how you will apply what you have learned at the virtual conference in your own teaching situation;
- Submit the enrollment form, reflection paper and $120 fee to UCI Extension, Attn: Education Programs, PO Box 6050, Irvine, CA 92616-6050.
- For more information about this credit opportunity and/or to obtain an official enrollment form, please contact Amanda Yngelmo or call 949/824-9304.

Don't let shrinking budgets and travel restrictions keep you from being a part of the largest and most informative national conference devoted to classroom innovation, gifted education, and high ability learners. Register for the the NAGC Virtual Convention experience and a full-day of content-rich sessions will arrive to your doorstep -- or desktop -- on Saturday, November 7. From sun up to sun down, "virtual attendees" will have access to 17 convention sessions live, in real time. Register for Virtual Convention Today!
